

curious about pet insurance?

For Your Team: A special message from the ASPCA® Pet Health Insurance program!

September is National Pet Health Insurance Month, the perfect time to brush up on how coverage works.

Pet insurance can be confusing, especially when you're unsure what's included, what types of plans are available, or how claims are handled.

Pet insurance isn't just about peace of mind today. It's one way to stay a step ahead, better prepared for future surprise vet visits and everyday care alike. National Pet Insurance Month is the perfect time to dig in and take a closer look.

What's covered

Coverage may include accidents, illnesses,
diagnostic testing,
surgeries, and more,
depending on the plan
you choose.

What's not covered

Pre-existing conditions, elective procedures,
and cosmetic treatments are typically not included.

Coverage options

Complete CoverageSM

Helps cover unexpected injuries and illnesses, including exams, diagnostics, treatments, surgeries, and prescribed medications.

Accident-Only

A more limited plan that helps cover care for unexpected accidents and sudden injuries like cuts, broken bones, or swallowed objects.

Preventive Care

Optional add-on that gives you cash back on a set schedule for routine care like annual exams, vaccines, screenings, and dental cleanings. Available for an additional monthly cost.

How reimbursement works

Pay the vet, send in a claim, and get reimbursed for eligible costs, either by direct deposit or check.
